

SHUT DOWN DEATH IN JUNE!

Death In June (also known as Di6) is a fascist neo-folk band set to play in Portland this coming Monday, May 19th at the Alhambra Theater on Hawthorne.

The band's name, Death In June, is a nod to the June 30, 1934 "Night of Long Knives," during which Hitler had political critics murdered. Di6's signature symbol is a Totenkopf, or "Death's Head," a symbol most commonly associated with the 3rd SS Panzer Division of the Waffen SS- a Nazi division. The 3rd SS Panzer Division is renowned for its Nazi war crimes.

Although many Death In June supporters maintain that the band's use of fascist imagery is intended as irony or even anti-fascist commentary, Douglas Pearce and Di6 have consistently shown themselves, in speech as well as in action, to support fascist organizing around the world. Additionally, their shows draw neo-Nazi audience members wherever they play. Examples of the band's fascist activities have included:

- Pearce has contributed money to Croatian fascists. Pearce made several live recordings in Croatia and then released them. Proceeds from the CD went to a Croatian fascist military hospital.
- In a 1995 interview, Pearce exalted Adolf Hitler as "The most influential man of this century!"
- Di6 has a history of collaborating with other fascist and proto-fascist musicians and projects including Changes, Boyd Rice and Michael Moynihan.
- Di6 has refused to participate in a number of music festivals which billed themselves as explicitly anti-racist or anti-fascist.
- Di6 provides a social networking space for active neo-Nazis.
- Di6 profits financially from romanticising Nazi propaganda.
